ADMISSIONS

Please consult the table below for key information about this degree program's admissions requirements. The program may have more detailed admissions requirements, which can be found below the table or on the program's website.

Graduate admissions is a two-step process between academic programs and the Graduate School. Applicants must meet the minimum requirements (<https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/requirements/>) of the Graduate School as well as the program(s). Once you have researched the graduate program(s) you are interested in, apply online (<https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/>).

Requirements	Detail
Fall Deadline	December 20
Spring Deadline	The program does not admit in the spring.
Summer Deadline	The program does not admit in the summer.
GRE (Graduate Record Examinations)	Not required.
English Proficiency Test	Refer to the Graduate School: Minimum Requirements for Admission policy: https://policy.wisc.edu/library/UW-1241 (https://policy.wisc.edu/library/UW-1241/).
Other Test(s) (e.g., GMAT, MCAT)	n/a

Note that if you have received only a bachelor's degree and intend to go on to our PhD program after completing your MA, please apply directly to the PhD program (<https://guide.wisc.edu/graduate/french-italian/italian-phd/#admissionstext>).

Applicants must submit all application materials by the fall application deadline.

GRADUATE SCHOOL APPLICATION

Refer to the following links:

- Consult the Graduate School (<https://grad.wisc.edu/>) website for complete information about graduate education opportunities at UW–Madison. This site is especially helpful in understanding admissions requirements (<http://grad.wisc.edu/admissions/requirements/>) and developing a timeline (<https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/>) for application.

Materials

Upload the following to the online application:

- Three letters of recommendation (<https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/#FAQ>). Recommenders should be in faculty or permanent academic staff positions. Since the Graduate School will contact your recommenders directly via e-mail once you have completed your online application, you should be sure to contact each recommender at least a month prior to when the letter of recommendation is needed to let them know that they will be contacted directly by the Graduate School. If your referees are unable to upload your letter of recommendation to the online application, the letters should be sent to the Graduate Coordinator (email listed in contact information box).

- Statement of purpose, preferably written in English
- CV
- Unofficial transcripts
- Submit the online Graduate School application for admission (<https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/>) and pay the application fee.
- GRE (<http://www.gre.org/>) (not required) institution code 1846 for UW–Madison
- International degree-seeking applicants will need to provide English proficiency. See the Graduate School requirements (<https://grad.wisc.edu/apply/requirements/>) for specific information.

Supplemental Materials

- TA/Fellowship Application: To be considered for teaching assistantship or fellowship support, you must submit to the department a document listing all relevant experience since you began studying Italian. There is no specific application form—it is a document, much like a CV, that you put together yourself. Include travel, study, or residence abroad. For teaching experience, be specific about subject, level, actual classroom hours/week, and age of students. Also indicate undergraduate and graduate honors, and how you would support yourself if UW was not able to offer support.
- Writing sample (essay or paper in Italian—usually between 7 and 12 pages in length)
