GRADUATE SCHOOL RESOURCES

The Bursar's Office provides information about tuition and fees associated with being a graduate student. Resources to help you afford graduate study might include assistantships, fellowships, traineeships, and financial aid. Further funding information is available from the Graduate School.

Be sure to check with your program for individual policies and restrictions related to funding.

PROGRAM RESOURCES

The La Follette School offers a limited number of fellowships and assistantships on a merit basis to select public affairs and international public affairs applicants who submit all application materials by January 1. Financial need is considered for some scholarships, so domestic applicants are encouraged to submit a FAFSA (<https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa/>) in December.

Please refer to the Funding and Financial Information (<https://www.lafollette.wisc.edu/admissions/funding-financial-information/>) section of the La Follette School website for more information (www.lafollette.wisc.edu).
