

STATISTICS, CERTIFICATE

HOW TO GET IN

HOW TO GET IN

Students must have credit for the following to declare the certificate:

Code	Title	Credits
Complete one introductory statistics course
B M E 325	Applied Statistics for Biomedical Engineers
ECON 310	Statistics: Measurement in Economics
I SY E 210	Introduction to Industrial Statistics
STAT 240	Data Science Modeling I
STAT 301	Introduction to Statistical Methods
STAT 324	Introduction to Statistics for Science and Engineering
STAT 371	Introductory Applied Statistics for the Life Sciences
Complete one calculus course
MATH 211	Survey of Calculus I
MATH 221	Calculus and Analytic Geometry I
MATH 171 & MATH 217	Calculus with Algebra and Trigonometry I and Calculus with Algebra and Trigonometry II

Information on how to declare the certificate is available on our website (<https://stat.wisc.edu/statistics-certificate/>). Students are encouraged to schedule a meeting with a Statistics advisor if they have questions.

Students declared in the Statistics major or Data Science major are not eligible to declare this certificate.